

I am writing to express my disgust over the ENTIRE Halftime show of the Superbowl last Sunday. The entire show was raunchy and dispicable. As an adult, I was offended. Initially, I decided to watch out of curiosity, wondering what was considered suitable and acceptable for a SuperBowl halftime show in our culture. Was I in for a shock. The icing on the cake was the revealing incident of Janet Jackson by Justin Timberlake. BOTH should be held accountable for their actions. The aggression of Mr. Timberlake when ripping off her clothing was as revealing as Ms. Jackson's bare chest. Both are deplorable and indecent during any hour of television. As a U.S. citizen, I urge you to enforce the laws of decency on TV swiftly and appropriately with the offending parties. Thank you.
